Laddie Perez-Galang is a member of Lake Park UMC in Oakland, CA. She migrated from the Philippines with her four other siblings in 1974. She's married to Doni Galang and they have two unmarried sons and four wonderful grandchildren from their oldest son who passed away in 2010. She's a Certified Lay Minister and was a Jurisdictional lay delegate in 2008 and 2012. She is currently serving as chairperson of Western Jurisdiction Inter-Ethnic Coordinating Committee, chairperson of Western Jurisdiction Asian American Coordinating Committee, chairperson of CA-NV Conference Mission Service Committee. She served as Consultation Coordinator for GBGM's Cambodia Mission Initiative Consultations in 2011 (San Jose, CA) and 2012 (Carrollton, TX).

Her passion is advocacy and networking. She strongly believes in empowerment and in giving voices to those who are hesitant to speak by giving and sharing information with them and connecting them to the resources. She's been invited and participated in fact-finding missions/explorations in Taiwan with Bishop Roy Sano and Bishop Robert Hoshibata (2006), Philippines with Bishop Beverly Shamana (2007), and Cambodia with Bishop Warner Brown (2010). She recruited 85+ racial ethnic youths to attend Youth 2011 in Sacramento, CA, and she also advocated and raised funds for their registration fees and lodging. What makes her soul to sing is by knowing that she puts smiles on people's faces and to let them know that they are as worthy as anybody else and God loves them for who they are.
