The Reverend Moonyoung K. Lee is an ordained elder in full connection in the California-Pacific Conference and has received a Master of Divinity degree from the Claremont School of Theology. Prior to joining NFAAUM she has served as a mentor in GBHEM's The Journey Toward Ordained Ministry, a program for racial-ethnic students seeking ordination in the UMC, and is passionate about raising future leaders of the United Methodist Church.

She currently serves as senior pastor at Saint Paul's UMC in Redondo Beach, California and is the president of Cal-Pac's Korean-American Clergywomen's Association. Moonyoung looks forward to participating in the ministry of NFAAUM and serving our Asian-American UM brothers and sisters.
